Plaintiffs, :

STIPULATION OF DISMISSAL

- against - :

CARELINK, INC. and GLOBAL STAFFING
RESOURCES, INC. :

Defendants.

WHEREAS, the Court stayed all proceedings in this case on the representation of counsel that "a final decision in the case captioned Coke v. Long Island Care at Home ('Coke'), is likely to affect the outcome of this case," and

WHEREAS, in Coke, the United States Supreme Court upheld the U.S. Department of Labor regulation, 29 CFR §552 109(a), exempting certain companionship workers who were alleged to be in domestic service employment and paid by third party agencies, from the minimum wage and maximum hours rules of the Fair Labor Standards Act; and

WHEREAS counsel for the parties have agreed to a voluntary dismissal of the case in light of the Supreme Court decision in Coke;

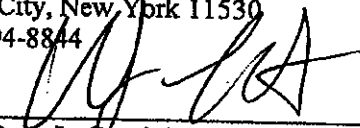

IT IS HEREBY Stipulated by and between counsel for the parties that:

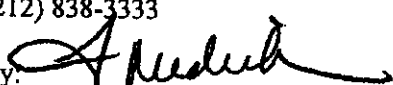

1. The case shall be and hereby is DISMISSED with prejudice as to all FLSA claims finally resolved or controlled by the decision of the United States Supreme Court in Coke v.

Long Island Care at Home No. 06-593, 2007 U.S. LEXIS 7717 (U.S. June 11, 2007), and DISMISSED as to all other claims asserted herein without prejudice pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P.
41(b).

2. Each party shall bear its own costs.
